THE GINGER MAN.

presents a visit from the Professor & the Madman!

On December 3, 2012, two of the world's most prestigious brewmasters together for one evening - The Professor and The Madman!

Dr. Fritz Briem is technology Director at Doemens Institute. He has a PhD from Weihenstephan and teaches at the Siebel Institute of Technology, primarily in the areas of brewing and fermenting technology. This is Fritz Briem's first visit to NYC in nearly twenty years!

Jerome Rebetz, the zany brewmaster of Brasserie des Franches-Montagnes, creates beers that reflect his unique personality - his beers have strong characters, lots of body, complexity and finesse. The New York Times rated "L'Abbaye de Saint Bon Chien one of the best beers in the world"; no small feat for a brewery that still bottles beer by hand and produces limited quantity of all their products!

Jerome may or may not start Trading Shirts with Customers again!

We'll be pouring kegs of 1809, Grut, XIV, and La Douze plus bottles of Grodziskie, La Douze and various BFM brands, including ADSBC vintages by the glass.

The festivities begin at 6PM
