

Privatbrauerei Heinrich Reissdorf

Emil-Hoffmann-Str. 4-10, Köln, 50996, Germany

Brewery Description:

The largest Kolsch brewery is Privat- Brauerei Heinrich Reissdorf & Co., established in 1894 in the center of Cologne by Heinrich Reissdorf. After his death in 1901, Reissdorf's wife took over the brewery until 1908 when her five sons- Johann Hurbert, Heinrich, Hermann, Friedrich and Carl began managing her brewery. During WWII, the brewery along with Cologne was heavily bombed. Only one mash tun survived, and the brewery was rebuilt in 1945.

In 1998, construction began on a new, state-of-the-art, computer-controlled, stainless steel brewery on the outskirts of Cologne in an area named Rodenkirchen, where production occurs today.

Reissdorf Kolsch Edelster

No. 2

“Bourbon Finish”

■ Spirits

To achieve this beautiful, faint-yellow spirit Reissdorf Kolsch ale has been distilled and matured in oak barrels that were previously used to age Bourbon Whisky. Bitter-wood, tannic notes from the oak barrels are pleasantly balanced by the malt sweetness from the distilled ale.
