

Gregorius > Trappist Monastery Stift Engelszell > Engelhartzell, Austria

Named after Abbot Gregorius Eisvogel who first guided the refugee monks from Alsace/France to Abbey Mariawald and Abbey Banz [both Germany] until they reached their final destination, Stift Engelszell.

Abbot Gregorius then led the Trappist Monastery for over 25 years.

■ Beer Collection

Style: Strong
Dark Ale
Alc./Vol.: 9%

Its special recipe incorporates organic honey from local beehives around St.Engelszell as well as the unique use of an “Alsacian wine yeast”.

